Hole-In-One Contests

Hole (yards)	Distance	Prize Amount

Note: The minimum distance is 150 yards. Women may shoot at the specified hole(s) at a distance of up to fifteen (15) yards less than the yardage chosen, subject to 135 minimum yardage.

Optional Coverage – Prize Restoration

The prize is only available for the first hole-in-one on the scheduled hole. Selecting prize restoration restores the prize value for a second eligible recipient on the same hole. Prize restoration applies to each schedule hole but does not apply to putting contests.

Include Prize Restoration Coverage

Putting Contest

A putting contest usually has two or more rounds. All golfers participate in the first round. Sinking the putt advances the golfer to the next round. If no one sinks the putt, the closest advances. The rounds continue until there is a final field. The number of participants in the final field equals the attempts selected below. Each participant in the final field gets a single chance to putt for the prize.

Distance (feet)	Number of Attempts	Prize Amount

Note: The minimum distance is 40 feet. Women may shoot at the specified hole(s) at a distance of up to fifteen (15) yards less than the yardage chosen, subject to 135 minimum yardage.

Important Notice

The following applies to all Hole-in-One and Putting Contests and will appear in your policy. Please read carefully.

Hole-In-One Contests

All attempts for prize amounts above $100,000 must be videotaped.

Prize Value	Requirements
Up to $4,999	Requires at least two (2) witnesses from the other registered participants playing in the group of the eligible recipient making the attempt.
$5,000 - $59,999	Requires at least two (2) witnesses from the other registered participants playing in the group of the eligible recipient making the attempt and one official third party witness positioned at the green or tee box of the designated hole. The official third party witness viewed each eligible recipient's initial shot as well as the full and complete path of the ball until it comes to a stop.
$60,000 - $100,000	Requires at least two (2) witnesses from the other registered participants playing in the group of the eligible recipient making the attempt and two official third party witnesses, one of whom is positioned at the tee box and one of whom is positioned at the green of the designated hole. The official third party witnesses view each eligible recipient's initial shot as well as the full and complete path of the ball until it comes to a stop.
$100,001 - $1,000,000	Same as $60,000 - $100,000 requirement, but one of the two official third party witnesses is a PGA certified professional or assistant professional at the course where the covered event is taking place or one must be a law enforcement officer. Further, all attempts for prize amounts $100,001-1,000,000 must be videotaped in full with such video providing a continuous, unedited video record of each eligible recipient's initial shot from behind the green clearly showing the eligible recipient in the distance and the ball landing on the surface and coming to rest within the hole.

Putting Contests

All putting contests must be videotaped. The videotape must be unedited and record the entire putting contest. It must include the measurement of the putt distance, ball placement and the eligible recipient striking the ball from the point of contact continuously to its resting point on the green or the bottom of the cup.

Prize Value	Requirements
Up to $10,000	Requires at least one (1) official third party witness.
$10,000+	Requires at least two (2) official third party witnesses, one of which must be a PGA professional
